Succeeded in locating and interviewing Dr. Alexander Griessner at his Drug Store, 4 French Street, at 9.30 this A.M. relative to the person to whom his brother, Dr. Anthony Griessner, gave the small key found at Phillips Farm, on or about September 18th, 1922, by his then chauffeur, Peter Remsing, and given to him (Dr. Anthony Griessner) on day of finding.

Dr. Alexander Griessner says he is positive the key was given by his brother Anthony to one of three or four reporters who he had told of the finding of key at the Hotel Walker, where they were stopping and who asked if he would not have the chauffeur who found the key bring it downtown to his store and tell them the circumstances. Says he made this arrangement with his brother, Dr. Anthony, who instructed Remsing to come to the Drug Store, which he did.

Says he is certain Dr. Anthony Griessner gave the key over to one of these reporters. Does not know who he was at this time and does not know what disposition the reporter who received the key made of it.

Respetfully submitted:
